

Course report – individual lessons

Students at the Musicians and Church Music's Department should fill in this course report and submit it to the examiner/teacher at the examination of the course. The course report is a supporting document for the examination of courses with student specific content, for example the course Instrumental Performance Studies.

- First page is mandatory, the second page is optional.
- You fill in one report for both Instrumental Performance Studies and Musical Studies and Interpretation
- At the examination of the course you submit this document to the examiner, who will forward it to Programme Administrator Alvi Joensen, alvi.joensen@mhmlu.se
